Annexure A: Responsibilities for Audit of Financial Statements

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the LLP's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by designated partners.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of designated partners use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the LLP's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the LLP to cease to continue as a going concern.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

B SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements of the Company has been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015. For all periods up to and including the period ended 31st March 2023, the Company prepared its financial statements in accordance accounting standards notified under the section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, read together with paragraph 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 (Indian GAAP).

2 Use of estimates

In preparing the company's financial statement in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in India, the company's management is required to make estimates and assumption that effect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements and reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period; actual result could differ from those estimates.

3 Fixed Assets

"Fixed assets are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses if any. Cost comprises the purchase price and any cost attributable of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use. Borrowing costs relating to acquisition of fixed assets which takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use are also included to the extent they relate to the period till such assets are ready to be put to use. In determining the amount of borrowing costs eligible for capitalization, any income earned on the temporary investment of those borrowings is deducted from the borrowing costs incurred.

Subsequent expenditures related to an item of tangible asset are added to its book value only if they increase the future benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance.

4 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized as part of the cost of the respective asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur. Borrowing cost includes interest, amortization of ancillary costs incurred in connection with the arrangement of borrowings and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to the interest cost.

5 Cash & cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents for the cash flow statement comprise cash at bank and in hand and short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

6 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the LLP and the revenue can be reliably measured. Revenue from sale of power is recognised based on the commercial terms prescribed under the respective power generation agreement and the corresponding invoices generated.

7 Provisions & contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognized for liabilities that can be measured only by using substantial degree of estimation, if

- i. The company has a present obligation as result of past event;
- ii. A probable outflow of resources is expected to settle the obligation and
- iii. The amount of obligation can be easily estimated.

Contingent liability is disclosed in the case of:

- i. A present obligation arising from past event, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or
- ii. A possible obligation, unless the probability of outflow of resources is remote. Depending on facts of each case and after due evaluation of relevant legal aspects, claims against the company not acknowledge as debts are disclosed as contingent liabilities. In respect of statutory matter, contingent liabilities are disclosed only for those demand(s) that are contested by the company.

Contingent Assets are neither recognized, nor disclosed.

8 Taxes on Income

Tax expenses comprise both current and deferred taxes.

Deferred income tax reflects the impact of current period timing differences between taxable income and accounting income for the period and reversal of timing differences of earlier periods. Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized.

9 Foreign Currency Transactions

Initial Recognition:

Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

Conversion:

Foreign currency monetary items are reported using the closing rate at the date of the Balance Sheet. Non-monetary items which are carried in terms of historical cost denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction and investments in foreign companies are recorded at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of making the investments.

Exchange Differences:

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on reporting company's monetary items at rates different from those at which they were initially recorded during the period or reported in previous financial statements, are recognized from those at which they arise, except for loans denominated in foreign currencies utilized for acquisition of fixed assets until the date of capitalization where the exchange gains/losses are adjusted to the cost of such assets.

10 Remuneration, Interest and Distribution of profits/losses.

"Considering the fact that the LLP has incurred losses during the current period, the partners have decided not to provide for interest and remuneration in the manner required in the LLP agreement.

So also profit earned / losses incurred by the LLP during the current period have been carried forward to the subsequent period without distributing the same in the manner required in the LLP agreement."
